Turn and lock the room
Never be found again
A voice like a stranger
And all out of anger
And i know you feel it too

Pass away the old
Lay to rest my friend
Pass away the old

This will be the end
This will be the end of me
I will start again
I will start again with you

This is where it ends
A shadow's all that's left
Its always been stronger
Its always been longer
And i know you feel it too

Pass away the old
Lay to rest my friend
Pass away the old

This will be the end
This will be the end of me
I will start again
I will start again with you

This will be the end
This will be the end of me
I will start again
I will start again with you

This will be the end
This will be the end of me
I will start again
I will start again with you
