Baby blue
Those eyes of yours disguise a world of lies
And I was one more soul to sell

I'm a fool
I fell into those eyes of blue and died
Now I lay between your Heaven and hell

My heart says one thing
And my body does another
My mind say you won't be home tonight

I know your love
Maybe you're too far to fall
I can't go on
Maybe you're too far to fall

In your hands
The woman in me feeling so alive
When we're playing out the secrets we share

Hard to stand
Imagining the passion in your wife
Then ashamed I lie here naked and scared

Your heart says one thing
And baby, nobody wants another
But my mind say I won't be home tonight

I know your love
Maybe you're too far to fall
I can't go on
Maybe you're too far to fall
I know, I know
You want me now, you want it all
I can't let go
Maybe you're too far to fall
