"Kinda Love You"

I kiss the air where you were standing
And think about you all the time you're gone
I don't want to stay away tonight
You're rushing for the last train lately
And crash into the week all by yourself
I don't want to stay awake tonight

Chorus:

I don't want to wait
I don't want to wait
I don't want to say I'm sorry now
I just want to take

I just want to take
i just want to say that I kinda love you
I call you just to hear you answer
And drive around your block most every night
I don't want to stay away tonight

Chorus

I hope you think that I'm not crazy
Pitching woo in my own trainwreck way
I don't want to stay way tonight.

Chorus
