They never took the time
To understand the pain behind his eyes and now they stand and they ask why
The answer to me has always been in clear view
This world was never meant for one as beautiful as you

Let me bleed
Let me die
I've fallen so far and I'm not getting up this time
Cut my vein let me die if you would be so kind
I have someone waiting for me on the other side

Amore Eternally
Amore eternally

When I asked you how you wanted to die

You looked at me and calmly replied, Like a comet shooting across the sky

Everyone will point and stare and say, Oh my They'll never be able to forget me
Not even if they tried

Let me bleed
Let me die
I've fallen so far and I'm not getting up this time
Cut my vein let me die if you would be so kind
I have someone waiting for me on the other side

Amore Eternally
Amore eternally
