The soft white sand beneath the cold blue waves
I bid thee farewell today
Today I follow you into the grave
Flung headfirst into the sunset I create

The carriage ride black as night
I'm bleeding I'm broken I'm barely alive
The carriage ride
Time to turn out the lights
I won't focus on the pain
I'll just focus on your eyes

I alone have control of my own destiny
No fate but what I create and I choose
To be with the one I love who loves me
Eden gave that right to me
The carriage ride Black as night
I'm bleeding, I'm broken I'm barely alive
The carriage ride
Time to turn out the lights
I won't focus on the pain
I'll just focus on your eyes

To die, to sleep
In the arms of the one
I've been aching
I know it's time to turn out the lights
I won't focus on the pain
I'll just focus on your eyes

Focus on your eyes
Focus on your eyes
Focus on your eyes
