"Send Me to the End"

Visit "Send Me to the End" on MotoLyrics.com

dim the lights
and let the candles live you and i
and nothing more to give i've been stagnant

dwelling all alone covering the cornerstone

i won't look back again turn myself to salt among the sand
with open arms and nails in hand even if they never understand

swallow pride
and push myself aside break the tide
pray it does it's worst

i've been complacent satisfied with pavement founded with no room to grow

and let the fire burn my eyes
'til i see a face the darker world denies
