Where were you? When we sailed in search of truth
Where were you? When we failed to find the proof
Now I know... I can see clearer now I am blind
Where were you? When the child became a man
Where were you? I just need to understand
Where were you? I need shelter from the pain
Where were you? I've been abandoned once again
I can't tell if you are laughing but you don't want to Hear me cry

I climbed this mountain on my own
So lost so cold and so alone
No guiding light to show the way
There's no one there I can see clearer now I'm blind

Who will hear? As I cry into the night
Who will care? As I fight the lonely fight
In my fear, there's a darkness in my soul
Who will care? If we feel the cold winds blow
I can't tell if you are listening
I don't know if you are there

I climbed this mountain on my own
So lost so cold and so alone
No guiding light to show the way
There's no one there I can see clearer now I'm blind

I don't know if you are listening
Reach out my hand to touch your face

I climbed this mountain on my own
So lost so cold and so alone
No guiding light to show the way
There's no one there I can see clearer now I'm blind
Blind to all I see
