See me become a snake
Wrapped around your neck...
See me become a spike
Pushed deep in your flesh...
Feel me become a tongue
Gliding softly down your spine...
Feel me become the essence
That makes you cry...
But there's one thing
You have to know
When you awake
Don't be surprised
'Cos you won't be alive
Watch me become that moment
That really matters in your life...
Watch me become the relic
That means so much to you...
But there's one thing
You have to know
When you awake
Don't be surprised
'Cos you won't be alive
Hear me become a cry
That means a thousand words in one...
And hear me as I whisper so low
That you won't dare to breathe...
See me become a snake
Wrapped around your neck...
See me become a spike
Pushed deep in your flesh...
See me become the one
Who sees behind your eyes...
And see me become the night
>From where you will never return...
