Hypocritical diversions your life's a pit of death sowing seeds of abomination blinded to the I am's light keep going in your ways you'll split hell wide open while your pride and your lies dissipate in darkness hear the cry to repent your sins will find you out diversions knowing the truth received the seed yet you reveal carnality preach his word speak Satan's lies slowly becoming fossilized keep going in your ways you'll split hell wide open while your pride and your lies dissipate in darkness hear the cry to repent your sins will fin you out diversions hypocritical diversions total death is in sight south of heaven is where you'll go if you don't release your soul keep going in your way you'll split hell wide open show your pride and arise dissipate in darkness
