If you don't look
I won't tell
Finally free to be still
Maybe something's right this time

I'll never look
Theres nothing to tell
Finally a place to be
But you know me too well sometimes

Theres no waiting
No taking a stand
Nothing comes up
That hasn't been had
Some say a place to be
But you know me too well sometimes
If you can't see
I'll have to say
Finally free to be still
Maybe its the other way

Theres no waiting
No taking a stand
Nothing comes up
That hasn't been had
Finally a place to be
But you know me too well sometimes
But you know me too well sometimes

Maybe something's right this time
Okay
