I miss my friends
The ones i grew up with
The boys, the men, the girlfriends
Are you okay

Are you even awake
Are you even awake

Do you take your clothes off
For anyone
With your daughter and your son
In the next room

Did you make it past

The train tracks
The stop lights
Do i have to ask

If you'd leave them behind
With all the best inside
With all the best inside

You almost
Made it out

You almost
Made it out

But you turned around
But you turned around
