Walking by the riverside
The colours change, the seasons have turned white
Reflecting the way I feel about you
But you don't know cause I ain't by your side

Do you know before I see you I know you are there (And before you kiss me...) And before you kiss me, my head is in the air

With my head in the air (Don't change a thing)
With my head in the air (You're everything)
With my head in the air (It's all I can do)
With my head in the air (Just thinking of you)

Waiting for a sign each day
A smile, a laugh, a touch of romance
Just show me the way you feel about me
You hold my hand and everything's OK

Do you know that while you're sleeping I'm dreaming of you
(And before you wake up...) And before you wake up,
I'm watching you

With my head in the air (Don't change a thing)
With my head in the air (You're everything)

With my head in the air (It's all I can do)
With my head in the air (Just thinking of you)
With my head in the air (Don't change a thing)
With my head in the air (You're everything)
With my head in the air (It's all I can do)
With my head in the air (Just thinking of you)

With my head in the air (Don't change a thing)
With my head in the air (You're everything)

With my head in the air (It's all I can do)

With my head in the air (Don't change a thing)
