Come and lay the arms for Eddie Bow part two They still sweatin' so hard, and it's a shame they need more

Cuz way back in the days they just needed three or four But now it's 95 and I don't need to show you how I know you know the old dance that I call the Eddie Bow

[Chorus-Tec-9]

[1st Verse-Tec-9]

Upstairs in a room we start the barhop stop Turned around and seen Ya, hoes was on my jock Now it's birdies in the house, gotta guard the bitch up Bout to get your World crowded by them soldiers in the chucks

You some real ass niggas, some down ass niggas Say them 3rd Ward niggas, say them 3rd Ward niggas Now like a dog hit, get nasty like a freak Like my ex-17th Ward bitch Rontinique She used to lick my whole body And she even used to tickle On the real she like her man and she could suck a mean dick Now won't you bow for the 3rd Ward I say now bow for the 10th Ward Now won't you bow for the 13th

[Chorus]

[2nd Verse-Yella]

I was doin' about 60 on my style I had a white lady I looked over at Tec because he really wants to leave the scene It wasn't fuckin' long before that bitch was cuttin' corners He got that bitch out there I thought I was a goner Racin' up the block, couldn't wait on them hoes And I kept my shield up, steady showin' my golds First stop was Saint Thomas where I saw this hoe I peeped the nigga hit a hoe, I hit the one that's on my right Nigga bow for a nigga that keep things locked Can't forget that hoe poppin' off 2nd & Drop Now won't you bow for the Melphanine? Won't you bow for the Josephine? Now won't you bow for the Calliope? I said you bow for the Calliope. Now won't bow for the Magnolia?

[Chorus]

[3rd Verse-Tec-9]

I said now bow for the Magnolia

It's the 3rd verse and we almost there, I guess it's time to talk about the hoes with real short hair Stop two guess who? I see the 17th crew All I know is they hella inject, a.k.a. the baldin' group I got my nigga Lil Ya, fuckin' them hoes with a glock All three of us together makin' them hoes pussy pop If you down with the 3, then you know just what to do Won't you break em off proper with that Bow part two? Now won't you bow for that 3rd Ward? I say now bow for that 10th Ward Now won't you bow for the 13th? Now won't you bow for the 17th? Now won't you bow for the Melphanine?
