"Smile"

Don't hold your pain
In the cracks in your face
Remember those lines
Will reflect your whole life

You don't look the same
When your heart is tame
And what's in your hand?
Tell me what's in your hand?

Spare a thought
For something I've been taught
You won't get far
Keeping me awake

So smile
Just smile

And then sing this song
Without a care anywhere
I will care for you in every way
I will share every day

Stoned despair
Just leaves our minds unaware

Until we sing this song
Without a care anywhere
I will care for you in every way
I will share every day
You're too smart for me to take

Just don't despair
Sugar, land is near
Could we walk for miles
Without the faintest smile?

Just smile
Just smile
Smile
Smile
