I send a kiss across the ocean blue
It's the only thing that I could think to do
If it's mood is overtaking you
Send one back soon

'Cos I don't even have a photograph
So I can lose myself inside your laugh
I just pray that you'll be coming back to Mend my heart's wound

It's the strangest thing to feel this way
All that your love brings only complicates
I don't remember ever feeling this way
If I got you to thank then you be praised

It's the strangest thing
It's the strangest Thing
It's the strangest Thing

It started out with such a simple clue
And then we talked and so the feeling grew
I looked deep into the heart of you it's a
Mesmerising view

It's the strangest thing to feel this way
All that your love brings only complicates
I don't remember ever feeling this way
If I got you to thank then you be praised

It's the strangest thing
It's the strangest thing
So hats off to the month of May
It's falling leaves and it's glistening days

I don't remember ever feeling this way
If I got you to thank then you be praised

It's the strangest thing
It's the strangest thing
It's the strangest thing
It's the strangest thing
