Well, I feel so alive
Got no reason to hide
There ain't any woman I know
That's got me so high

I got things on my mind
That will reach you in time
There ain't any woman I know
That's got me so high

And though she really lied
Yes though she really lied
There ain't any woman I know
That's got me so high

And though we really tried
Yes though we really tried
There ain't an emotion I know
So low, so low

Got a reason to stay
She's taken the pain from yesterday
Got a reason to stay
She's got no rhythm, she says
(Ooo)
She's got no rhythm, she says
(Ooo)

Got a reason to stay
She's taken the pain from yesterday
Got a reason to stay
She's got no rhythm, she says
(Ooo)
She's got no rhythm, she says
(Ooo)

So I feel so alive
Got no reason to hide
There ain't an emotion I know
So low, so low
