Further on...how open-ended can that be?
That's one of the reasons I look so far
I'll be long, waiting for what I've been told is normalcy Missed the mark and shot straight past...what's the hurry?
Perhaps the point lies in between these goals
Drive on by, and waste my energy on something more concrete

I think about logistics

Where you live is who you are
And if they could who would take that back?
Maybe in exchange for all the lies complied
Return to sender with a smile
And I'll lick that stamp

Take that back
Maybe in exchange for all the lies complied
Return to sender with a smile...yeah!
And I'll lick that stamp
