If anything
it should have been a better thing
From underneath you staring at the ceiling There's another world of chocolate bars and baseball cards That hides inside of all this tension that I'm feeling
But It's all inside of you Yeah, it's all inside of you Surprise surprise
I miss your hair, you miss my eyes
And all this solitude is my confidence eroding So we slide inside of someone's mouth and someone's eyes Until there's a sound of something intimate exploding
But it's all inside of you Yeah, it's all inside of you [3X] I wish that I was anesthetized
and sterilized and then we wouldn't have this evidence congealing Surprise surprise,
another pair of lips and eyes
And that is the consequence of actually feeling
It was all inside of you [4X]
