(Original by John Hiatt)

My baby's gone and I don't know why She let out this morning like a rusty shot in a hollow sky Left me without warning sooner than the dogs could bark and faster than the sun rose Down to the banks in an old mule car she took a flatboat across the shallow CHORUS: Left me in my tears to drown she left a baby daughter Now the water's wide and deep and brown She's crossing muddy waters Tobacco standing in the fields be rotten come November And a bitter heart will not reveal a spring that love remembers When that sweet brown girl of mine her black eyes are ravens
We broke the bread and drank the wine from a jug that she'd been saving REPEAT CHORUS
Baby's crying and the daylight's gone
That big oak tree is groaning In rush of wind and river of song
I can hear my sweetheart moaning Crying for her baby child or crying for her husband Crying for that river's wild to take her from her loved ones
REPEAT CHORUS TWICE
