(Beatle Dennis)

( Original by Robyn Hitchcock & The Egyptians)

There's a house burning down on the radio, but We're in luck, we don't mind, we're as far as I can tell Everyone worries so much about themselves
There's nothing happening to you that means anything
at all There's a plane crashing down on the studio, but We're in luck, we're not there, so we're somewhere else instead Everyone wishes so much upon themselves There's not a thing that you can do that'll make me come again

There's a house burning down on the radio, but We're in love, we don't mind, we're as far as I can tell Everyone worries so much about themselves
There's nothing happening to you that means anything
at all
There's not a thing that you can do that'll make you live again
