I said goodnight LA
Cause I'm awake in my room
I've been up for 38 hours
And it don't look like sleep's coming soon Cause I could break like a bird Or I could swallow the sea
It seems like the daylight is coming
No one is watching but me
But I don't mind the dark Discovering the day
Cause the night is a beautiful bright blue and gray what brings me down now is love cause I can never get enough
And what brings me down now is love cause I can never get enough of love And it's a dangerous time for a heart on a wire Shuttle from station to station noisily not knowing why So I put my head on the ground and the sky is a wheel Spinning these days into things that I've lost

But you can keep all the years
But I don't mind the days gone rolling away
Cause all this sunlight feels warm on my face today
But what brings me down now is love
cause I can never get enough
What brings me down now is love cause I can never get enough never get enough Never get enough no no
Never get enough of love
I can never get enough of love
What brings me, brings me down now is love
Cause I can never get enough of love
I can never get enough of love [2X]
I can never ever get enough
I can never get enough of love
