she sat right down on the sofa says where have you been? i been waiting for you Cause last night i had something so good these days get so long and i got nothing to do i been hangin' around this town on the corner i been bummin' around this old town so long
i been hangin' around this town on the corner i been bummin' around this old town way too long we spend(t) all day getting sober just hiding from daylight watching tv we just look a lot better in the blue light well you know i gotta get out well i'm stuck so tight weighed by the chains that keep me hangin' around this town on the corner i been bummin' around this old town too long
i been hangin' around this town on the corner
i been bummin' around this old town way too long this girl listens to the band play she says where have you been?
I been lying right here on the floor (right here on the floor) well I got all this time to be waiting For what is mine to be hating
What I am
after the love has faded Hangin' around this town on a corner
I been bummin' around this old town so long I been hangin' around this town on a corner I been bummin' around this old town for way way way way way too long way way way way too long
(live insert) oh my god i say get up real early in the morning dont get up 'till the afternoon Son, I see the day is dawning?

(she said well get up get dressed get out) Its almost have past noon?
