

Counting Crows

"If I Could Give All My Love"

Visit "If I Could Give All My Love" on MotoLyrics.com

Got a message in my head that the papers had all come,
Richard Manuel is dead and the daylight's coming on.
I've been wandering through the dark, now I'm standing on the lawn.
If I could give all my love to you, I could justify myself but I'm just not coming through,
You're a pill to ease the pain of all the stupid things I do.
I'm an anchor on the line of a clock that tells the time that is running out on you.
Well, it was cold when I awoke and the day was halfway done,
Nearly spring in San Francisco and I cannot feel the sun.
You were sleeping next to me, but I knew that you'd be gone.
Chorus
Take some time before you go to think of Mondays
coming down,
And the people that you knew and the ones that aren't around.
You've been fading day to day, I've been moving town
to town.
Chorus x 2

Visit Counting Crows page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.