If tonight's the night then today's my day
And I should hang it all on display
Yours is just a losers game
And I decided that I should play

Throw your arms around my neck
I won't be soon to forget
Throw your arms around my neck
I won't be soon to forget

(Instrumental break)

Felt the wind's direction bringing change
Clouds so softly it will rain
And summer fell and the winter spring
And now it's all a feeling I can't get back again

Throw your arms around my neck
I won't be soon to forget
Throw your arms around my neck
I won't be soon to forget

(Instrumental break)

Plotting thoughts against the clear blue sky
And the feeling came I felt like getting high
No sense to try to find my piece of mind
Cause maybe baby I was born to win dissatisfied
And you know your caring never dies so

Throw your arms around my neck
I won't be soon to forget
Ah no ah no ah no
Throw your arms around my neck
I won't be soon to forget

(Instrumental break)

Come on yeah
Throw your arms around my neck
I won't be soon to forget

Come on come on and try
Throw your arms around my neck
I won't be soon to forget
Not gonna have a rise
Throw your arms around my neck
Hold me hold me hold me
I won't be soon to forget
Gotta get out of my life
Throw your arms around my neck
Come on come on now shine
I won't be soon to forget
