I Could Be Happy Here By Big Country.

-----
If you will take my love

If you will take my stand

If you will be the one

If you will take my hand

If you will never run

I could be happy here

If you could take my pride

If you could take my tears

If you could take my side

If you could take my fears

If you could take turn the tide

You could be happy here

But I see what is done in my home-land

But I see what is done in my name

Can you see what is done in your home-land ?

Can you see what is done in your name ?

Tonight we keep our pride

Tonight we dry our tears

Tonight we leave our sides

Tonight we shed our fears

Tonight we turn the tide

And we are happy here

But I see what is done in my home-land

But I see what is done in my name

Can you see what is done in your home-land ?

Can you see what is done in your name ?

>From the L.P./Cassette "Peace in our time
