She told me that she loved me, She said she'd make my house a home. She told me that she loved me, Oh she said she'd make my house a happy home, Ah, but living with that woman now Yeah, it's just like living all a- Oh, living all alone, Yeah, living all alone. You know I love you baby, Oh, you know that I tried to be your man oh, Man yeah, I tried so hard to be your man. You know I love you baby, You know that I tried so hard to be your man, But your heart has turned to stone, girl. There's nothing but the devil crawling through your veins. Ah, play the blues, come on. Ah, crystal's got my woman, Ah, dope is driving her insane, yeah Dope is driving her insane, yeah Dope is driving her insane. Crystal's got my woman, Ah, dope is driving her insane, yeah. She used to be so pretty, Now she can't remember her own name, Now she can't remember her own name.
