"You And Me"

Everytime I look at you you take away my every breath
I couldn't find the courage to speak to you
I didn't understand why I needed you
The answer was there when I looked at you
And you fell into my arms and I said

You and Me together as it should be
You and Me forever let it be
You and Me together as it should be
You and me forever let it be

I couldn't figure out what it was with you
That made me feel that I was invincible
The truth came to whenever I thought of you
And you fell into my arms and I said

You and Me together as it should be
You and Me forever let it be
You and Me together as it should be
You and Me forever let it be
You and Me forever let it
