You shouldn't have loved me baby
When i was nothin, nothin at all
I used to bleed for you
Just to watch you fade
Baby, baby, baby
Rock and ruin
Baby, baby, baby
I never came home to a burnt out room

You should've loved me baby
When redemptions too blind
Nature took my soul
And sin left a scar so wide
Tiem ravaged my body
And now i live in the house
Where the red lights always on alone

Baby, baby, baby
Shame on you and me and you

Here we go now
Im under your skin
Cant rub me out
Cant rub it in
Oh, baby running away
Running away, to you

Now i will wait for you
But i wont wait very long
I will wait for you
And when you bore me ill be gone
And i will cheat on you wiht your daddy or son
I will fuck you up im so sorry
Its just in my nature, baby
Well there aint nothing i can do to stop
Oh bastard

Here comes the rain

Here comes the rain
My, youre blood is pumpin
Good and evil

God and the devil
Aint no ones pity

Well baby your loves with me
Your loves with hate

I will fuck you up
I will feel no guilt

Thats right rub it in rub it in cant get me
Watch my face under you skin
Ill never got back
Oh nest our head
Till you cant see straight
I watch ou blood
Its pumping black
Baby your loves with me

Here we go round
Youre red and youre red
You writhing away
From under my heel
Run way your heads on fire
Cant tell the difference between hate and desire

Everything went all fucking wrong
Chaos reigns when im along
Fuck you up
Wont get me out
Wash that slain under your skin
Cant wash it out
Coz id wash it in

All my loves in vain
All my loves in blood
All my loves in vain
I cannot find a vein
