"Book Of Shadows"

Sitting here by candle light
I listen to the wind whisper in my mind and watch it all begin
Secret places never seen
Stories never told
One by ONE I write them down
Here within my book of shadows

Deep inside of the shadows
Dark and Light intertwine
NOW at last I can truly see
When your voice becomes mine

Sanctuary I have found
Within your silent song
Touching every part of me
AND guiding me along
Melody and harmony

No I can't forget
Everything you shared with me
Written in my book of shadows

Deep inside of the shadows
Dark and light intertwined
Now at last I can truly see
When your voice becomes mine

Light is born from shadow
Shadow born from light
Seeking inspiration
Finding both day and night

Deep inside of the shadows
Dark and light intertwined
Now at last I can truly see
When your voice becomes mine
