I thought she was trying to tell me that she had another guy on the side but then she told me very clearly that I was the guy on the side she drove me to drink and drive I remember our first run in back in the summer of I forget when I took her down to the local drive in before it closed down and I got a new girlfriend

...sorry about that years later our paths cross again she said "hold me baby, you are forgiven" and I thought I'd died and gone to heaven till she turned 'round and got her revenge

...ouch

she broke my heart just to watch me cry she laughed and sarcastically apologized

...solo

I thought she was trying to tell me

she drove me to drink and drive
she drove me to drink and drive
she drove me to drink and drive
