Verse I:

Your back's against the wall and you don't know what you're going to do.

This trial you're facing is the worst thing that you've been through

You feel singled out in the battle, your will to fight is almost gone.

There's one in your corner whose never failed

Don't give up keep pressing on.

Chorus:

In the midst of the storm He spoke peace be still and the wind lay at His feet

With just five loaves of bread and two little fish, He watched five thousand eat.

He made the blind man to see, set the captive man free, to this world He was Heaven-sent

When you've done all you can, remember Jesus can do all that you can't

Verse II:

When we gather in Heaven and our battle with life is through.

Should we swap old war stories, I have one I'd like to share with you.

About that night at the crossroads where Satan vowed I would lose.

A hand out of nowhere picked me up, and I made it through.
