The evil lives on in the United Nations.
Lied to in my public education.
Evolution's the joke they hand you,
Injecting young minds with their propaganda.
It's an attempt to control the mind using ignorance to breed the blind.
Masses oblivious to capitol crime.
Stripping our freedom one day at a time.
Social Security's excuse to be listed.
I'm not a number or a statistic.
The System's corrupt.
I will resist.
I grab the mic and raise my fist come on.
All the odds stacked against me being free.
I will not embrace your New World Order.
The question lives on what can we do to fight it?
Dowse their mindset with truth and light it, smite it.
I've got my sword of resistance.
All through time the truth remains consistent.
I won't bow down to your one world religion.
No compromise, I stand by my decision.
Waste no more time,
Every day is a mission to wake up the masses who bow
in submission.
All of the sleeping, all of the dead, wake them,
Revive them and march straight ahead.
The system's corrupt.
I will resist.
I grab the mic and raise my fist come on.
