I know that life can hurt you, believe me I've been there
We let each other down and pretend that we don't care
But love will reveal that old wounds can heal
So open your heart and take a chance

Chorus:

I'll be your brother, you'll be my friend
We'll lean on each other through thick and through thin
You'll stand in the gap, I've got your back
Our bond will not end, no, 'cause we're brothers and friends

If I should disappoint you, please don't give up on me
I know a friendship can endure even if we disagree
Through rich or through poor
We'll weather the storm
The treasure of love will see us through

Chorus:

I'll be your brother, you'll be my friend
We'll lean on each other through thick and through thin
You'll stand in the gap, I've got your back
Our bond will not end, no, 'cause we're brothers and friends
