"Letting Go"

It's the only way I know to make myself whole Is to fall down on my face from this mess that I've made
Overwhelmed by disgrace it's such a familiar place
Lord hear me, I need you near me

Chorus:

Free my mind, it's tearing me apart
I humbly cry from the depths of my heart
Conform my will to what You'd have for me Take control, I know the only way to freedom is letting go

I know only You can free me from the voices that surround me
So I'm trusting in Your Word to renew me
Restore me Lord I pray

Chorus:

Free my mind, it's tearing me apart
I humbly cry from the depths of my heart
Conform my will to what You'd have for me
Take control, I know the only way to freedom is letting
