Winter is melting
All around my feet
And there's cops cruisin' left
Down a right way street
And there's racecars revvin' in my memory
And my feet hurt up into my knees
Well now I wanna win the lottery
I said I wanna win the lottery...

There's endless lines of walking men
And great big ladders movin' up and down
With blind faith in dumb crazy luck
Just blowin' all around
It's never made much sense to me
Well now I wanna win the lottery...

Personally I believe
That the computers know too much
About me, and the places that I go
Well I'd rather be places they can't see
And be all alone, just you and me
Where we can just see who we wanna see
And we can just be what we want to be
Well now I wanna win the lottery

I've got my ticket and I've got big plans
For when I'm gonna win the lottery
I know just what I'm gonna do
As soon as I win the lottery
