Time is movin' quickly
I have never seen it go so fast I was tryin' to recover but my watch was just a minute fast It's not that I haven't been there though I just cannot stand to let you go..
And I have to say
It shouldn't be that way
What I have to do Is get through to you That all I've got to give is yours
if I can give it to you All I've got to give is yours
if I can give it to you..
Bums are sleepin' in the alley you can hear the streetcats cry But I can't get no rest, i doesn't really matter where I lie Sometimes I think I should be feeling sad but then I end up thinkin' that it ain't so bad..
{chrous}
Well, the night is growin' heavy
I can barely get up off the floor I've been tryin' to forget you but I think about you more and more It used to be such a simple thing to wait around and see what would tomorrow bring..
