You've got your beauty queen makeup and your hair just right Anyone who gets to see you sure is in for a sight I sit here in wonderment and in disbelief your glance is so uncomfortable just like a petty thief..
{chorus}
You are a queen, you are a picture Of what a man is supposed to want to love You start to get closer and then you're sitting next to me..
As you walk by i can smell your perfume
I can actually smell it everywhere there's a trail across the room
I listen to your conversation
I am hypnotized
If it's got an end like that it must be memorized..
{chorus}
Your lips so red and your skin so white
Your platinum hair gives off a glow Your head begins to turn and then you're lookin' right at me..
To a girl like you I just don't know what to say It's too bright here in the theater perhaps another day It's something in the way you move it's something I just don't know But it's kinda hard to wanna love you when I wanna throw you out the window..
{chorus}
Your heart is being broken by someone!
And someones' heart is being broken, by you, by you!
