Mmm-hmm

I mean it (I mean it)

Don't say it, babe (don't say it, babe)

Hear me now now

Said ah, please don't turn me on

No, no listen, listen

Baby, won't you keep your distance

You're getting too close to me

I've been feeling my resistance

Melting away

But she said she wouldn't mind

If I spent a little time

Said you were a friend of mine

She could trust me out of sight

Now two bottles later on

And I think I stayed too long

I forget where I belong

Saying please don't turn me on

It's getting late I know I should be gone

Don't push me 'cos I'm not that strong (no, no, no, no)

You can never make it right from wrong (no, no, no, no)

Please don't touch me there

Stop playing with my mind it's not fair

When you know I've got another who cares

And she's waiting for me somewhere out there, yeah

Don't say my love is too familiar

'Cos she's everything to me

Don't say what she don't know won't kill her (ooh)

I'm playing away

Put your hands where I can see

Baby, you know what I mean

'Cos you're looking good to me

And you know I feel the heat

As you button up your dress

And I wake up in your bed

With a head full of regrets

Saying please don't turn me on

It's getting late I know I should be gone
Don't push me 'cos I'm not that strong (no, no, no, no)
You can never make it right from wrong (no, no, no, no)
Please don't touch me there
Stop playing with my mind it's not fair
When you know I've got another who cares
And she's waiting for me somewhere out there, yeah

Don't want to lose the love I have
'Cos once it's gone can't take it back
You know that I want to Doesn't matter what I hear you say
I see the look that's in your eyes (no, no)
Please don't turn me on

It's getting late I know I should be gone (I should be gone)
Don't push me 'cos I'm not (I'm not) that strong
(I'm not that strong, baby)
You can never make it right from wrong (and oh)
Please don't touch me there
Stop playing with my mind it's not fair (oh no)
When you know I've got another who cares
(She cares about me)
And she's waiting for me (and she loves me)
Somewhere out there (and she needs me)

Please don't turn me on
It's getting late I know I should be gone
(You know I should be gone)
Don't push me 'cos I'm not that strong
(I'm not that strong)
You can never make it right from wrong (from wrong)
Please don't touch me there (touch me there)
Stop playing with my mind it's not fair
