Mmm yeah oh girl Mmm yeah oh yeah

We used to be inseparable, now the love has gone That's the reason why, why you and I can't get along
And even though I knew what you had done to me
I never planned to cheat I guess both of us been weak..
yeah

Cards throw em down we been fooling round guess we're both to blame
Nothing to talk about girl it freaked me out the night you called his name Mmm not coming home till the early morn' what am I supposed to say Relationships are based on trust so with us it's obvious

Why don't we go our separate ways
Neither of us wants to compromise
Too many secrets, jealousy and lies.

It seems that we been messing 'round ain't being straight
You say that we should work it out but it's far too late Being honest girl when all said and done got some things to face
There's nothing left to lose but so much time to waste
yeah
What's the point in playing playing games with me
We ain't gotta lie
You might as well just pack our bags and just say goodbye
Only human girl we both made mistakes but it ain't no use
I think we should call it quits cos we can't go on like this.

Why don't we go our separate ways
Neither of us wants to compromise
Too many secrets, jealousy and lies

I don't even know why we've been tripping for so long It's not like we both don't understand what's right from wrong
Seems like we cant get along no more so why don't we just go Shut the door as there ain't no love here anymore?

Why don't we go our separate ways
Neither of us wants to compromise
Too many secrets, jealousy and lies [repeat]

(Girl I'd like to know)
What else is left for us to say
(girl I'd like to know)
'cos I can't se any other way
(girl I'd like to know)
Why did we let each other down
(girl I'd like to know)
I wanna know I wanna know
(girl I'd like to know)
If it all started with a kiss
(girl I'd like to know)
Why did it have to end like this
(girl I'd like to know)
All of the promises we made yeah?
