Who am I? who am I? 2x

Finding myself tossing numbers out the window, when I come from the club
So many girls up in there, but I don't want none of them no
She's the only one that I want (the only one I want)
So I reach and turn the radio down
Feeling crazy just like I'm coming down with something
That there ain't no cure for, so I think I'm falling in for sure

Now ooh oh cause I barely recognize whose in the mirror anymore
Who am I? who am I? (Who am I?)
Even though I see the picture a little clearer than before
Who am I? who am I?
And everyday I'm looking straight at an imposter
She's drawing me in and I don't think that I can stop her
This ain't like me. This ain't like me.
Who am I? Who am I?

Finding myself changing schedules on the daily, just tryna make more time for my baby
Cause I don't get enough in the 24 hours
Swear I'd add some more if I only had the power Ooh look how she's got me head over heels and I don't think no one can stop me
I'm falling falling for her (for this girl)
I'm falling falling for her
So I reach and turn the radio down
Feeling crazy just like I'm coming down with something That there ain't no cure for, so I know I'm in love for sure

Cause I barely recognize whose in the mirror anymore
Who am I? who am I? (Who am I?)
Even though I see the picture a little clearer than before
Who am I? who am I?
And everyday I'm looking straight at an imposter
She's drawing me in and I don't think that I can stop her

This ain't like me. This ain't like me.
Who am I? who am I?

Cause I really don't know anymore
Doing all types of things and feeling ways I never felt before
And it's all cuz of her
A stranger a stranger is looking back in the mirror
And I don't know where I've gone
Tried to pull away but the love is way too strong (I really don't know)
And I don't know where've I've gone
Tried to pull away but the love is too strong oh

Cause I barely recognize whose in the mirror anymore
Who am I? who am I? (Who am I?)
Even though I see the picture a little clearer than before
Who am I? who am I?
Everyday I'm looking straight at an imposter
She's drawing me in and I don't think that I can stop her
This ain't like me. This ain't like me.
Who am I? who am I?
