Saw some pictures in the paper
Of a girl I'd met the day before
I couldn't believe that hours later
I had reporters knockin' at my door

But I used to dream about the life I'm living now
And I didn't think I'd miss those things from the past And I'm not afraid of leaving or letting go of what I had
'Cause I realize that now there's no turning back

'Cause I'm a young heart living in a world filled with love
So when tear drops fall from me like rain from above
I can brush my troubles away
Know that deep down inside, I got sun shining in my life

I used to think I could get better
My girlfriends always used to get me wrong
Some just sent messages, love letters
But those kinda feelings never lasted long

'Cause now the only love I find's within a castle made of sand
And when the tide goes out it's swept away Though I got my peace of mind and time is firmly on my side
So through the battles I can safely say

That I'm a young heart living in a world filled with love
So when tear drops fall from me like rain from above
I can brush my troubles away
Know that deep down inside, I got sun shining in my life

[Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]
Brush my troubles away

'Cause I'm a young heart living in a world filled with
love
So when tear drops fall from me like rain from above
I can brush my troubles away
Know that deep down inside, I've got sun shining in my life

I'm a young heart living in a world filled with love
So when tear drops fall from me like rain from above
I can brush my troubles away
Know that deep down inside, I've got sun shine in my
