Is she hanging out with him?
Or is she ready to begin our life
I know that she's blowin' with the wind
Yes she's just another kid
Is she lying to me?

So fuck you head
I ain't listening to you
All you ever say just gets me drunk
So I'll hang on
I keep fighting with myself
Taking on the world I might need help

ooooooooohhhhhh

Drag on,
These minutes seem like hours
When I can't trust your word
Or trust myself

And I won't listen anymore

Am I ever gonna win?
Will I drive myself to lose what makes me whole?
I don't know where to begin
I take myself this long
I think I'll make it through

So fuck you head
I ain't listening to you
All you ever say just gets me drunk
So I'll hang on
I keep fighting with myself

Drag on,
These minutes seem like hours

When I can't trust your word
Or trust myself

ooooooooohhhhhhh

And I won't listen anymore

She's a liar
She's a cheat
She's a masterpiece to me She's all I think of ooooooooooooowwwwww

She's my strength
She's my doubt
She's my life I can't live without She's everything

ooooooooohhhhh
ooooohhh oooohhh

Hang on

Drag on, these minutes seem like hours when I can't trust your word or trust myself

So I'll hang on

And I won't listen anymore
