My love
Called me last night

My love
Called me last night

She said "if you don't change, I will"

My love
You could've called
A little sooner
But you know
I wouldn't hold
It against you

And if you want me to change, I will

Cause you can change
Oh, if you want, you can change
If you want
You can change
Oh, if you want, you can always change

And my love
You know
I will change for you
You know
I, I will change for you

My love
Called me last month

She said "I hate to have to put you through all this
But you see
I wanted you to change
And now that you did
I wish that you had stayed the same"

But you can change
Oh, if you want, you can change
If you want

You can change
Oh, if you want, you can always change

But you can change, you can change

And my love
You know
I will change for you
You know, you know
I will change for you
