New, new, new
New, new, new

New New York skyline
Wounds may heal in time
Don't crumble, don't dismay
It's a new New York today

I look across these city streets
My heart is numb, it still beats
Nothing to say
There's nothing to say

I look across this empty room
My heart is still in gloom
There's nothing to say
I only can pray

New, new, new
New, new, new

New New York Skyline
Wounds may heal in time
Don't crumble, don't dismay
It's a new New York today

I look across these city streets
My heart is cold, it beats
The deeds of man
Ground zero today

New, new, new
New, new, new

I get on my knees and pray
For the heroes of the day
No comfort I can find
For the loved ones left behind

They won't tear us apart
They won't tear us apart
They won't tear us apart

They won't tear us apart

No way

New day, new day
