Something is missing that i can't recognize
Something is gone forever and i can't sleep tonight
Promises get broken and people's hearts can't change
Promises don't last forever, we both know
People change
Something is missing and i can't sleep tonight
And i will miss you when you're gone
Someday i'll see you, i'll find you
Paradise
Someday i'll touch you, i'll hold you
Tonight
America is waiting for a spaceman to come back
The president is shaking the oilis, running dry
Something is missing that i can't recognize
Take away the pain, it keeps coming back, it's coming back again
It keeps coming back, it's coming back again
And i will miss you when you're gone
Take away the pain, it keeps coming back, it's coming
back again
It keeps coming back, it's coming back again
