With most of me underneath,
Hide away from the bitter cold,
And give me something more.

I see through the autumn leaves,
Such things I can not believe,
And strangers become my friends.

So true, so try, but we lose
So much time and I can't bare to lose,
So take back all of your love,
I see it so clear when I feel you disappear,
And I can't bare to lose.

So close to complete the truth,
And the term has become so loose,
Well save me my place in hell.

Cause I am the autumn leaves,
So true I can not believe,
I'll see you in the springtime.

So true, so try, but we lose
So much time I can't bear to lose,
So take back all of your love.
I see it so clear when I feel you dissappear
And I can't bear to lose.
No, I can't bear to lose.

So true, so try, but we lose
So much time I can't bear to lose,
So take back all of your love.
I see it so clear when I feel you dissappear
And I can't bear to lose.
