I'm so engaged by everything.
You take it like I'm not listening,
Give way to time and let us be on the same line.

I've been erased from your memory,
You bought and returned every piece of me,
I could get rich off the fantasy but I can't cash in.

Please don't come around again, I'm dying to see you.
Please don't break my heart again, I'm dying inside you

You cut your hair like a movie star,
Now that you're gone it's like you really are something
I saw when I was passing by and it hurts like hell.

Please don't come around again, I'm dying to see you.
Please don't break my heart again, I'm dying inside you

You deserve everything you want,
But it's gonna take some time for me to build it up,
I'll take the long way around but I am here fighting to be with you right now.

Please don't come around again, I'm dying to see you.
Please don't break my heart again, I'm dying inside you
