I am so primitive, I am so limited,
I've been restricted to the terms of breaking my heart
I'm such an idiot, when I'm falling into it
I am addicted to the terms of falling apart

You can be so sure, I can be so insecure
You can shine like gold but I can't stay awake
I guess I'm in for another long night of dreaming.

I am predictable, but I can be so loveable
I am invisible in the world of a woman like you
You are incredible, and so beautiful
So unattainable in the world I could never break through

You can be so sure, I can be so insecure
You can shine like gold but I can't stay awake
I guess I'm in for another long night of dreaming

All I ever wanted was a moment with you,
But all I ever leave with is a long night of dreaming
And all you ever wanted was the moment of truth
But all you ever leave with is a long night of dreaming.

I don't have anything but I will give you everything
Just so I could do it all again
You are incredible and so goddamn beautiful
So bright and colourful, paint a smile on girl and colour me in.
