I've been here waiting for the liars;
I see them everyday.
I've been here waiting for the moment
To take their breath away.
It may be my imagination
I don't think I'm okay.
Maximum dose of medication
To take this all away,
Take this all away
So you can hear to say,
"Get up, shut up, and get the fuck right out of here."
We'll say tonight is the last time.
"Get up, shut up, and get the fuck right out of here."
And we'll say tonight is the last time.
And I've been here waiting for the answers
To make sense of all this.
One death, one last breath left for romance
And I'll seal it with a kiss;
Seal it with a kiss,
You know I never miss.
"Get up, shut up, and get the fuck right out of here."
And we'll say tonight is the last time.
"Get up, shut up, and get the fuck right out of here."
And we'll say tonight is the last time.
And all we got is this time to rot.
And all we got is this time to rot.
And all we got is this time to rot.
And all we got is this time to rot.
And all we got is this time to rot.
And all we got is this time to rot.
And all we got is this time to rot,
With you, with you.
"Get up, shut up, and get the fuck right out of here."
And we'll say tonight is the last time.
"Get up, shut up, and get the fuck right out of here."
And we'll say tonight is the last time.
I've been here waiting for the liars
To take my breath away.
