It takes infinite knowledge to know
That there is no god that holds you
Accountable it's impossible
Oh, limited minds
You say I'm narrow-minded with my point of view
Just look around at my life my friend
It's narrow too
And yet you doubt
You doubt
At mercy of Y2k
Single digit catastrophe upgrade
One type of blood is only God
No compromise

Keep an open mind with life I hear you say to me
I think the laws of nature and laws of physics would strongly disagree
One operation would heal or take a life
A math equation, one answer will solve
Our position in the solar system is a must Air we breathe, Water we need
Formula must be precise
Or else we're dead...Then what?
